Emily and her team were fantastic to work with. I didn't have any idea where to begin with my template designs and they guided me throughout the whole process. They were very welcoming to my notes and changes, and gave me great ideas and advice on layouts and formatting. Extremely quick to respond. A pleasure to work with, will definitely be using their services again in the future.

David M.

“ I'm new to Mailchimp and needed to learn how to create a campaign. With just a few questions Emily zeroed in on exactly what we needed and walked me through the steps while offering advice and tips along the way. Awesome!
